

Dr. Israel Covey,
circa 1905

May 28 - 29, 2011 ~ Honor, Michigan

Honor Days 2011

Honor Gifford,
circa 1909

“HISTORY LIVES!”

Honor Gifford Day: Saturday, May 28th Celebrating Honor's Victorian Era

- Victorian Tea and Fashion Show
*(1-2:30 pm, Gathering Place;
Tickets $3 advance/$4 door - contact
Shantel at (231) 930-4627 to reserve)*
- American Indian Veterans Memorial Dedication (11am, Birdland Indian Art, US 31 1/4 mile west of Honor)
- Checkers, Marbles, and Horseshoe
Tournaments; Lumberjack Whiskers
Contest (1-4pm, Maley Park)
- Blue Ribbon Awards for Old Fashion
Pies, Pickles, and Quilts - antique and contemporary (1-4pm, Maley Park)

BBQ Chicken and “Open Mic” Old Time music in Maley Park (1-5pm)

Remembrance Day: Sunday, May 29th Commemorating Honor's Civil War Past

Civil War Reenactors: Battery D, 1st
Michigan Light Artillery, Featuring:

- Commemoration at Champion Hill
Cemetery - ALL Veterans (1-1:30pm)
- Cannon Firing & Living History
Presentation (2:30pm, Maley Park)

Battery D, 1st Mich Light Artillery on the Move

Community Picnic & Pig Roast, plus “Open Mic” Old Time music in Maley Park (1-5pm)

Veterans and those in period clothing (1861-1915) or Native regalia receive HALF Price meals, courtesy of Chef Walt Langille, US Army Veteran.

Want to enter a contest or join the Victorian Fashion Show? Just show up and register!

For more information, contact Shantel Sellers at (231) 930-4627 or Beverly Holbrook at (231) 409-4590.

Sponsored by the Honor Historical Society and the Honor Area Restoration Project (HARP).